ELIGIBILITY

By state law, vital records are not open for public inspection. Vital records may be issued in the form of a certified or an informational copy. Only certain individuals are eligible to obtain a certified copy of a vital record (see below to determine if you qualify). Not qualified to receive a certified copy of a vital record? Any person who submits an application and the applicable fee can obtain an informational copy of a vital record.

Certified Copies

When possible, the record will be computer generated, issued on security paper with a raised seal and have the signature of the issuing agent. Applicants can request a photostatic copy (a photo copy of the original) if the computer generated copy does not contain enough of the needed information. Individuals eligible for a certified copy are the following:

Self (individual listed on the record)
Spouse, Child
Parent, Guardian
Next of Kin – grandparents, grandchildren over 18 and siblings
Attorneys, Physicians or Funeral Directors acting on behalf of the family

Designated Agent – Someone given the authority by another individual to obtain a vital record on his or her behalf. You must complete Section 4.
Personal or Property Right - A right to the record not included in the categories above. You will be asked to provide information about the right.

Informational Copies

These copies will be issued on plain paper and contain the statement "For informational purposes only. Not for legal proof of identification." An informational copy will not contain a raised seal or the signature of the issuing agent. When possible all informational copies will be issued from the computer unless a photostatic copy (a photo copy of the original) is requested.
